Explanation of Responses:

1. The reported sale was effected in American Depositary Shares (ADSs), each ADS representing ten common shares, following prior conversion of the reporting person's common shares into ADSs. The number of securities reported in Table I reflects the common shares underlying the ADSs sold. The reported price reflects the U.S. dollar weighted average sale price per underlying common share, calculated by dividing the ADS sale price by ten. The sales were effected in multiple transactions at prices ranging from $1.577 to $1.597 per underlying common share, inclusive. The reporting person continues to own the same number of ADSs previously reported in Table II on prior Forms 4, which are not impacted by the sales reported in this Form 4.

2. Represents shares of common stock held by the reporting person, which are the economic equivalent of 126,253 American Depositary Shares (ADSs).
